pax Good Behavior Game

Extended Version

Weeks 1-4 PAX Roll Out

Week 1- PAX Visions: Include PAX Voices & Hands/Feet

- Students predict PAX behaviors for multiple settings & procedures (greetings others, transitions, restrooms, group work, etc.)
- Include student prediction for PAX Voices, Hands, Feet, in all settings.
- Refer to PAX Visual posters as reminders for PAX Voices, Hands, and Feet.
- Use PAX language to monitor and reflect on behavior througout the day.
- Send PAX at Home flyer to parents/caregivers.

Display PAX posters and PAX Vision chart in classrooms.

Week 2- Reinforce Positive Behavior with "I'm A PAX Leader"

- Recognize PAX Leaders in multiple settings throughout the day.
- Be specific: use student name, give specific praise, & include "PAX Leader" language." "Jimmy, thanks for keeping your hands by your side in line. "You are a PAX Leader."
- Encourage peer recognition of PAX behaviors. Ask "What PAX behaviors did your classmates show at recess?"
- Students identify specific ways they can be PAX Leaders in multiple settings.
- Send PAX at Home flyer to parents/caregivers.

Prepare: Attatch harmonica to lanyard and keep in easily accesible area.

Week 3- Introduce PAX Quiet

- Use PAX Quiet for gain attention and give instructions.
- Model use of harmonica. Include visual cue and review expectations with PAX Quiet poster.
- Predict PAX behaviors and expectations for PAX Quiet.
- Reinforce students and praise effort for response to PAX Quiet.
- Use peer modeling and prompting for struggling students.
- Send PAX at Home flyer to parents/caregivers.

Prepare: Identify 10 quick and manageable Wacky Prizes.

Week 4- Reinforce Positive Behavior With Wacky Prizes

- Send PAX at Home flyer to parents/caregivers.
- Select appropriate Wacky Prizes (quick, manageable, spacing considerations).
- Create a specific PAX Vision for Wacky Prizes (participation and refocusing procedure)
- Set timer for appropriate prize length (under 60 seconds).
- Participate with students.
- Use PAX Quiet to refocus.
- Use Wacky Prizes throughout the day to reinforce PAX behaviors.
- Send PAX at Home flyer to parents/caregivers

Prepare: Write students name on top of Tootle Notes.